

1 DELEGATE GILCHRIST: In the event of a sudden
2 death in the preceding night and nobody has gotten around
3 to filling the vacancies I still think it would be nice to
4 have the majority of 120.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

6 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: So, therefore, it is the 7 position of the minority that they want to follow the
8 existing Maryland practice under the 1867 Constitution and
9 not follow the recommendation of the Constitutional Commis-
10 sion draft?

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gilchrist.

12 DELEGATE GILCHRIST: That is correct.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

14 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Thank you.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Pascal.

16 DELEGATE PASCAL: Delegate Gilchrist, what has
17 been your experience with the attendance of the General
18 Assembly? Do you have any figures on that?

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gilchrist.

20 DELEGATE GILCHRIST: No, I have not, but I have
21 been advised that the vast majority of the bills which are
